26-Year-Old Dependents

SoloCare – Individual/Family Plans

As long as the policy remains active, dependents may remain on their parents' plan through the end of the plan YEAR during which they turn 26. Upon renewal, the 26-year-old dependent may passively renew onto a separate individual policy. Although every effort is made to ensure the broker of record is transferred to the new policy, it is the responsibility of the broker to submit an Broker of Record (BOR) form in order to confirm.

Note: This policy applies to all SoloCare plans, regardless of whether the policy is purchased ON or OFF Marketplace.

SimpleCare – Large and Small Group Plans

As long as the policy remains active, dependents are able to remain on their parents' plan through the end of the MONTH during which they turn 26. Upon termination at the end of that month, the 26-year-old is eligible for a Special Enrollment Period.
